PERIODICALS.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.
ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press.
 The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind.—Boston Globe.
 The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
 Some of the most popular of modern novels have first appeared as serials in this Magazine. In all respects, it is an excellent periodical, and fully deserves its great success.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Harper's Weekly.
ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press.
 Harper's Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorial articles are able and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
 Its articles are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.
 Its papers upon current questions and its imitatable cartoons lead to mould the sentiments of the country.—Pittsburgh Courier.
 Harper's Weekly stands at the head of illustrated journals in the United States, in circulation, editorial ability, and pictorial illustration.—Ladies' Repository, Cincinnati.

"A Repository of Fashion, Pleasure and Instruction."

Harper's Bazar.
ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press.
 The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.
 The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures; to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety; to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes; to the paternalist by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the freshest enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.
 In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trust-worthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and squibs, are all invigorating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.
